COWHIDE THE EDITOR.

A Frankfort Widow Makes Things Lively for the Editor of the Argus.

EDITOR BADLY WHIPPED.

Epidemic of Barn Burning Reported From Various Parts of the State.

MANY BURNS BURNED LAST NIGHT.

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 25.—Frankfort is greatly excited over a sensational cowhiding that occurred on streets this morning. Editor McDonald, of the "Daily Argus," was cowhided by Mrs. Brady, a widow who had taken exception to an item in the "Argus." McDonald was terribly punished; the widow was arrested.

EPIDEMIC OF BARN BURNING.

Tobacco Barns in Many Parts of the State Burned Last Night.

Louisville, Sept. 25.—An epidemic of barn burning is reported from various parts of the state. Reports of destruction of barns by fire last night came from Mayfield, Dover, Newcor, Guthrie, Owenton, Paris, Providence, Uniontown and Glasgow. In nearly all cases the barns burned were full of tobacco.

YELLOW FEVER

Continues to Spread in the Southern Cities.

New Orleans, Sept. 25.—Three deaths from yellow fever have been reported in this city today.

Edwards, Miss., Sept. 25.—Nine new cases of yellow fever here today.

New Orleans, Sept. 25.—Reports from the fever infected cities of the South show no diminution in the spread of the yellow fever. In this city yesterday there were three deaths and nine new cases. In Mobile there were three deaths and three new cases. The death rate in New Orleans is 15 per cent. In Edwards there were thirty new cases. The death rate at Edwards has been about 3 per cent., but the number of patients has been vastly greater than in New Orleans or Mobile.

The yellow fever situation here is monotonously the same. New cases are developing slowly and the death rate is maintaining its usual ratio to developed diseases. It is confidently asserted that no case has yet developed here that cannot be traced to its origin in the Mississippi Gulf coast. Thus far there have been a few less than one hundred cases and fifteen deaths. The death rate is in the neighborhood of 15 per cent. It was, in 1878 16 per cent.; so that up to the present time the disease is about as virulent as it was in the last great epidemic New Orleans has had.

CAPT. KIRKPATRICK

Held On a Charge of Shooting Without Wounding.

The Case Against Phil Stephenson Was Dismissed by the Court.

Capt. William Kirkpatrick, formerly of the City of Paducah, but now of the City of Evansville, was tried in Judge Sander's court this morning on a charge of shooting at Watchman Wm. Cunningham, of the St. Bernard coal mine.

The evidence showed that the captain shot twice at the watchman from the roof of the mine, which had gone to the mine after a big, one bullet lodging in a timber which the watchman had taken refuge. The two had exchanged epithets, but there was shown absolutely no provocation for the shooting other than insulting language, and Judge Sanders held the defendant to answer, fixing his bond at $250.

Capt. Kirkpatrick claimed that Cunningham made a motion as if to get his pistol and he thought the watchman intended to shoot. The papers and witnesses were sent immediately to the grand jury room, and this afternoon an indictment was being drawn. The case will probably not come up at this term of court.

Mr. Phil Stephenson was tried on a charge of pointing a pistol at Tom Woods, colored, but the evidence showed he only ordered Woods from the house, after the latter had used insulting language.

Close the Engagement. Tonight the Kilm-Hearn Company will close their engagement at the opera house by presenting the favorite old temperance play "Ten Nights in a Bar Room." Last night's performance of "The Golden Giant Mine," like all previous productions was most satisfactory and made a favorable impression. During the past week the company have shown remarkable versatility in presenting in a creditable manner a wide diversity of standard plays. Tonight ten dollars in gold will be given away.

A LUNATIC.

Bud Bracken, of the County Adjudged Insane.

Was Recently Hurt—Imagines Whitecaps Are After Him.

Bud Bracken, a well known farmer of Massac Cross Roads, this morning was brought to the city this morning to be tried on a writ of lunatic inquisition.

Bracken became violently insane yesterday, but attempted to do no harm. It was deemed expedient, however, to place him where he can be treated.

About six weeks ago he was a victim of a runaway, being thrown from a buggy and having his head split open. Since then his mind has been deranged and his principal hallucination seems to be that white caps are after him.

The evidence in the case was heard and Bracken was adjudged of unsound mind, and was ordered to the asylum.

Deputy Sheriff Tobe Rogers was appointed to convey him there, and will leave with him tomorrow. Bracken is about 45 years old, and has a family.

Eddie Ashley, aged 8 years, was adjudged an idiot, and his mother was appointed a committee to take care of him.

FAIRY STORY.

That Dr. Hunter Wants to Be Surgeon.

Washington, Sept. 25.—A special to the "Courier-Journal" says: There is no surprise shown here over a report from Kentucky that Dr. Hunter wants to be Surgeon of the Port. It is not thought, however, that Senator Debow will, as stated, give the doctor his endorsement, for the reason that the Senator has constantly stated both here and in Kentucky that he was for Barnett over any other man in the state. Barnett knows nothing of the Senator's reported change in indecision and he should be one of the first to hear of it. Considering this and also the fact that President told Barnett less than a week ago that he would appoint him as soon as his case could be reached, the report seems very unreasonable.

New Livery Strife.

Mr. Mike Iseman is tearing down the old building at Second and Washington streets and will at the completion of the demolition begin the construction of a $2000 brick and corrugated iron building on the site.

Local Option at Smithland.

A local option election is today being held in Smithland, Livingston county, and the contest will likely prove an interesting one. Smithland has long been a "dry" town, and there is every reason to believe that the "drys" will win today's fight.

May Be an Incendiary.

The fire department was called to North Seventh street about midnight to extinguish a small blaze at the home of Will Ashford, the colored teamster. Ashford's house was badly damaged only the night before, and it is now supposed the blaze was the work of incendiaries.

Mayfern Didn't Start.

Mayfern did not start yesterday at Evansville, as intended, owing to her needing a rest.

Death in Graves County.

Marion Leonard, the six-year-old child of Mr. T. M. Huddleston, of Graves county, died last night of diphtheria. The remains were this afternoon buried in New Concord cemetery.

The laundrymen, as well as the female assistants, at Rodney C. Thompson's New Electric Steam Laundry have expressed themselves the past week of being more than pleased with the excellence of the work.

Hundreds of patrons of Rodney C. Thompson's New Electric Steam Laundry have expressed themselves the past week of being more than pleased with the excellence of the work.

Greatest lunch of the season will be set by Lagonarino tonight at Merchants' Exchange.

WRS. MOONEY

Sues the Illinois Central For $30,000 Damages.

HER HUSBAND RUN OVER

At the Union Depot and Died—Divorce Suits Filed Today.

ALSO A COUPLE OF SUITS ON NOTES.

Mrs. Addie Mooney, of 707 South Tenth street today instituted damage proceedings in the circuit court through her attorneys, Messrs. Josiah Harris and D. A. Greer, against the Illinois Central railroad company for $30,000, claimed as a result of the death of her husband, Rufus Mooney. The latter it will be remembered, was struck by a passenger train that was backing under the shed at the union depot a few months ago, and an arm cut off, in addition to being otherwise badly injured. He died that evening in the railroad hospital.

The plaintiff alleges that his death was due to the negligence and carelessness of the company's employees. Mooney was an employee of the company at the time of his death.

SUIT FOR DIVORCE.

Walter Grubbs, colored, today brought suit in the circuit court against Winnie Grubbs for divorce. He claims that they were married in 1892, and that over a year ago the defendant abandoned him. Major Harris is attorney.

SUITS ON NOTES.

Tong Shannon today instituted proceedings in the circuit court against Mary Ewell for $100, due on a note. Mrs. Mary Bonnyson today sued A. H. Halbeck for $100, due on a note.

ALLEGED ABANDONMENT.

Bertha Satterfield, colored, today filed suit in the circuit court against her husband, Luke Satterfield, for divorce, alleging abandonment. The defendant is the young darkey who recently shot a boy with a flint rifle several weeks ago, from the effects of which he died.

The grand jury yesterday afternoon returned the following indictments: Phil Stephenson, selling liquor on Sunday; same, selling liquor to minor.

Charles Cothamer, selling liquor on Sunday; same, selling liquor to minor.

Dudley Skinner, unlawfully standing jack.

Henry Greif, same charge.

Bud Harvey, unlawfully standing stud.

Thomas Corley, malicious shooting. Corley shot J. C. Jackson at Siles a few weeks ago.

Lee Berry, false swearing, two charges.

The case against Ellen Lasley, charged with running bawdy house, was dismissed.

Wm. Robt. McGill, the wife murderer was presented before Judge Eshop late yesterday afternoon to receive a life sentence. He was asked, in accordance with law, if there was any reason why sentence should not be passed.

McGill replied that some of the evidence against him was incorrect, and that he was a victim of circumstances and perhaps malice. He concluded, however, by saying that he guessed he ought to be contented with a life sentence, and received the sentence. Judge Bishop decided that there was a question of law involved in the McGil case, he would give the prisoner the benefit of the doubt, and sentence him for five years the punishment fixed by the jury. Gardner was given five years for house breaking, and it was also learned that several years ago he had received a similar term for a like offense. The law says that where the jury fails to make the punishment, the court may make the last sentence a double the first. The court accordingly could have made it ten years.

It is interesting to sum up the aggregate number of years of imprisonment imposed at this term. R. M. McGill is 56, and allowed a 60 years of life, there are 24 years yet. Added to his there is one ten year term, or a term of eight years and two years one eight year term, one five year term, one four year term, four three year terms, in addition to other prisoners yet to be tried. This makes a total of over half a century.

POCKET BOOK STOLEN.

Mrs. Frank Wheeler loses $38 and a diamond.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Frank Wheeler, wife of the well known conductor, who works at Mr. Jozen son's, went into Mr. S. H. Winstead's drug store to make a purchase. She laid her purse, containing $38 and a diamond pin, on the counter and left it there. When she returned it could not be found. Several persons were in the store at the time, including several colored people, but no trace of the pocket book could be found. A colored man was suspected, and Officers Jones, Crow, Sencer and Phillips sought for the supposed thief, but could not find him.

The Cairo Levees.
The Cairo people are now considering the advisability of strengthening the levee, to make it in a condition to withstand all future floods. A corporation desires control of the levees, and the council will shortly take some action in regard to the matter.

BIG ATTENDANCE

In the Public Schools Last Week.

The Circus Somewhat Interferes—111 in High School.

The average attendance for the week just closed has been 1253 in the public schools—1415 whites and 538 colored.

This is lower than the first week, owing to the circus. On circus day the attendance was 1652, while on the preceding day it was 2048. This is a decrease of 400.

The average attendance for the previous week was 1012. There are now 111 pupils in the high school, with several more to come in the next week. This is the largest attendance ever known.

Today state blackboards are being put up in the schools, there being over fifty yards of the new boards.

BUTTER FAMINE.

Country Butter Can Hardly Be Obtained at Any Price

Pastures All Burned Out By the Drouth—Butter Advances.

Local grocers, as a result of the drought, report a butter famine. Within the past few days the price has advanced about 10 cents, and it has been almost impossible to procure at any price any kind of butter except the "creamery."

The pastures are all burned out, and cows that have always had plenty of good grass at this time of the year are now going dry.

A similar state of affairs is reported from surrounding cities, especially Metropolis, where the famine is greatly complained of.

DRIFTWOOD

Saved From the Waters, Corralled on the Levee.

Items of Special Interest to River People.

The river remains stationary at this point. Capt. Emory Voight is again home, after a trip up the Tennessee.

The Ashland City is due here out of the Tennessee river tonight.

Business was somewhat better on the wharf this morning than for several days previous. It was especially active in shipments.

The W. K. Phillips was out for Cairo on time this a. m. doing a small low water business.

The Reuben Dabbar arrived here from Evansville yesterday afternoon and left on her return up the Ohio, after attending business here. She refused freight, owing to the low stage of the river.

"The whole government itself," or engineer George Gordon's double, engineer Jim Allison, the jovial water boiler on the steamer Lookout, was up this morning shaking hands and prevaricating some with the boys, after spending several months up the Tennessee on a snag pulling expedition and is looking as fat as a Thanksgiving turkey.

Teamsters seem to think that the dangers which are being put on the levee will be of no benefit.

The towboat Jennie Gilechrist leaves here early tomorrow morning for Tennessee river.

Capt. Harpman, of Cincinnati, was in the city this forenoon.

The snag boat Lookout on her recent trip out of the Tennessee river pulled out an old coal boat which has been sunk just below the Gilbertsville bridge for some twenty years. She recovered nearly 100 bushels of coal and the white pine gunnells, notwithstanding the many years they have been submerged, were not thoroughly water-soaked and floated away when released.

The elegant steamer Tennessee leaves this afternoon for the upper Tennessee river and is expected to have an elegant trip of freight as usual. She will carry a lighter with her in case of emergency.

The little towboat Jennie Rae, which was on the dock here for repairs, left this morning at 4 o'clock for New Orleans. Capt. Frank Farnesly took her down as far as Memphis.

Diver John Patrick is still at work on the marine ways track. They find considerable trouble with the tracks when pulling out the White and the Beaver.

Capt. Lewis Fell, of the government snag boat Lookout, was asked by a number of river men to pull the old abandoned water works crib out of the channel, but he declined to work at it owing to it being in the Ohio river, which is out of his district.

The little towboat Lorna Doone, with her refrigerator barge in tow, arrived here late yesterday afternoon after spending several weeks up the Tennessee river buying up all the poultry, eggs, hides and furs available. She layed here throughout the day awaiting orders, and will in all probability leave for St. Louis tomorrow.

The Clyde arrived here from St. Louis several days behind time yesterday afternoon. She lay her last night and transferred her Tennessee river freight to the Tennessee, and left on her return to St. Louis today.

It is now said that the confession of Noah Banny that Rev. Hinshaw, who is now serving a life sentence for murdering his wife in Indiana, is not guilty, is all a plot to free Hinshaw, and that Hinshaw himself concocted the plot. If the reverend convict is guilty he is the most cold-blooded knave in criminal records.

A LEADING French journal imparts this information to its readers: "The United States has no war power. Its navy is composed of a few modern ships which can not put to sea, and its army made up of a great many generals and a few negro and Indian troops of no discipline and poorly armed." If Spain acts upon the French view, she will get some experience, even if she does not retain Cuba.

Iron, the great trade barometer, is going up in price, every week showing a substantial increase. The iron furnaces of the South never have done so much business before, those in the Birmingham district having even now sold all their output for the rest of this year. These facts mean a great deal to those who watch the "signs of the times," but here's dollars to doughnuts that the free silver orators will deny that prosperity has arrived even in Birmingham.

THINK back two years and compare the condition of the streets of Paducah now with their condition then. It was a fact that men were seen on our principle streets fishing in the mud holes. That was the work of a practical joker, but it demonstrated the true state of affairs, and the records show that more money was spent for repairs on the streets that year than has been spent for repairs this year. This is one of the records of the present city council that they are proud of and there are numerous others which will remind the people of from time to time.

Our friend who edits the "White Metal Democrat" at Fulton, Fulton county, State of Kentucky, accuses the SUN of "maliciously lying" about W. J. Bryan. That is, however, very unkind. The SUN has the kindest feelings for Mr. Bryan, always sympathizing with the "under dog," and as for the "White Metal Democrat," we consider that for a rural exponent of a dead issue, it is a pretty fair success. While the editor is not reading the SUN, he is dreaming about Bryan in 1900, and the Resurrection Day, and of course the ideas thus imbued don't always "gee." The right and proper thing to do then is to accuse the SUN of "lying."

"BROADSTREET'S" which is one of the most conservative business publications in the country, continues to report a remarkable development in manufacturing and business generally throughout the United States. Its latest issue shows that the railroads are so crowded with business as to require an enormous increase in their cars for transporting grain and other products; two roads, whose main offices are in Ohio, having just ordered 1000 new box cars each. Other Ohio industries also seem to be flourishing, the Cleveland Rolling Mills announcing that they are just receiving an order for 1000 tons of our steel, to be exported to Birmingham, England, and three large cordage mills at Lima, Ohio, which have been silent for several years, being put into operation with a full force of hands. From other states there are equally gratifying reports. The Bridgeport, Pennsylvania, woolen mills, which have been idle for nearly three years, announce that they will resume operations next week. The Wead Paper Mills, of Malone, New York, which have been idle for a year or more, will be reopened at once; the "Industrial World" reports the markets practically bare of foundry pig iron, owing to the large demand, while the "American Agriculturist" reports the interest in farm loans in the West phenomenal, low, having fallen very much as compared with the rates of former years. These conditions, when they are considered with those of the corresponding period in the Cleveland administration, are all the comment that is needed by way of justification of the action of the people of the United States in last year's presidential election.

DISCRIMINATING DUTIES. It is evident that Attorney General McKenna's opinion may not be necessarily final. Senator Elkins says: "The movement in behalf of a discriminating tariff provision will go steadily forward, and there will be no halt until adequate protection is secured for our American shipping and against the privileges of the Canadian railroads. The first thing I will do on the reassembling of Congress will be to present a bill providing for the discriminatory duties which it had been hoped would be secured by Section 22 of the tariff act. I am preparing the bill, and it is about half completed."

Hon. J. S. McCarthy Completely Cured by Paine's Celery Compound.

Patient after patient repeats the same story. He goes to bed at the usual hour, falls off to sleep very much as usual, but, instead of sleeping through the whole night, wakes about three or earlier and can get "no more sleep after that time."

Carry home a bottle of Paine's celery compound and see him soon - insomnia gives way to sound, refreshing sleep.

A couple of rural visitors strolled down Broadway soon after sunrise circus day. They were looking in the display windows and spelling out signs, when one stopped in front of the Delicatessen, closed as the other stores were at that time in the morning, and began deciphering the name.

"D-e-l, del," he began, "'-i, dell,'" but his companion was getting impatient, and seizing him by the arm glanced at the sign and said, "Aw, come on, it's nuddin' but o's o' them fake museums. I seen in one when I was here afore!"

"Say, partner," noticed a farmer yesterday morning early, as he drew reins out on West Broadway and stopped an empty riding motorcar who was on his way to work, "what in the name of goodness is all them flags up fer?"

"Why, they're advertising for me," Bill," replied the motoman as he took a squint down Broadway and realized for the first time how the scores of flags suspended to the trolley wires looked to a stranger.

"Wal, all right then. Git up, Bill," the farmer resumed, as the trolley sped on to town. "I tho't mebbe

George Winston, the murderer, spent another prayerful night at the jail. He plays all through the night, and despite the fact that he claims to have made his peace with his maker and is ready to go, seems unable to sleep.

He today said he wanted but one thing before he died, and that was to be baptized. It is likely that his spiritual needs will be given the proper attention in time, although up to the present no minister of the gospel has visited him.
